

Touchstone 3

Unit 7 – A Relative clauses

A class by Mr. Jean Paul Quiñonez

Who, which, that

- I'm interested in working with people who are reliable and hardworking.

It's describing the characteristics of people

- My father uses computers which have 8 gb of RAM memory and 1 tb.

It's describing the characteristic of computers

- There are people that have big houses that have plenty of rooms

We use relative clauses to explain ideas for people or things

Subject relative clauses

For people

- My father has friends who/that have very good manners.
- There aren't many politicians who/that are honest.
- There have been teachers who/that have left their print in life.

Who = that
Who is more common for people

For things

- In this city there are houses which/that have swimming pools.
- We love books which/that are historic or documental.
- Planes which/that are big can transport hundreds of people.

Who = that
That is more common for things

Object relative clauses

For people

- Luis is a manager who/that everyone in the company can trust.

Everyone in the company can trust Luis.

- My parents are people who/that our neighbors love a lot.

Our neighbors love my parents.

Who = that
Who is the object of the verb

For things

- Libraries are places which/that we go to in order to find information.

We go to libraries to find information.

- Soccer is a sport which/that thousands of people around the world love to play and watch

Thousands of people love to play and watch soccer.

Who = that
That is the object of the verb

For object clauses

We can omit the pronouns

- Those are children who we love teaching.
- Those are children we love teaching.

- English is a language that most people use for business.
- English is a language most people use for business.

Thank you

ucontinental.edu.pe